

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

You have in your hands the 2009 revised edition of the Saddle and Sirloin Portrait Catalog. The first section of this special edition "Places For Dreams, a History of the Saddle and Sirloin Club" is published as part of the celebration of the 100th Anniversary of the founding of the Club.

The following section features the 347 livestock leaders who have been honored by their peers. A likeness of each of their portraits and a biographical sketch follows.

Our efforts to make it a more meaningful part of our Animal Industry history and heritage have not been accomplished without help. Many supporters of the lofty ideals on which the historic gallery was founded contributed materially.

In recognition for their time, talents and for sharing their memories, we heartily wish to acknowledge them: Frank Harding, Dr. Richard Willham, Myron Fuerst, Dr. Don Good, Dr. Clair Terrill, Dr. Roger Hunsley, Bud Snidow, Dr. Robert Bray, and Robert Walton are some of them. Others include: Jess Andrew III, Forrest Bassford, Isabel McKerrow Brown, Earl Butz, Larry Caine, John Dawes, R.L. Dickinson, Calvin Drake, Dr. Eugene Ensminger, Keith Evans, Dr. Robert Foote, Murray Fritz, Richard Goff, Richard D. Goodrich, Doug Hixon, Dr. Truman Hershberger, Whitney Hibbard, John Houston, John Jenkins, Dr. Bernard Jones, Dr. Jerry Lipsey, Allan McGhee, Dr. Ron Nelson, Don Ornduff, Richard Orr, Dean Robert Phemister, Charles Potter, Dr. Harlan Ritchie, Bert Rutherford, Pat Swan, Dr. Robert Totusek, Leon Steele, Clint Tomson, Dr. John K. Matsushima, Dr. Ray Woodward, Bill Fletcher, Dr. Charles Eastin, Robert W. Budd, Dr. Vern R. Cahill, Curtis R. Mann, Jeanette K. Muser, James F. Runnion, James M. Barnhart, Susan Wagner, Ona Lea Pierce, Blanford Pierce and Todd Domer.

We acknowledge the cheerful cooperation of CEO Harold Workman's staff. His assistant, Jeff Zinner, managed the directory production. Tomi Thorn executed the layout and edited text.

It is the intention of the Kentucky State Fair Board to continue up-dating the biographies of those leaders honored by the Club. Friends, relatives or associates who have additional pertinent information on honorees with short sketches are invited to send leads or other information to Dale F. Runnion, 606 Clarendon Drive, Longmont, Colorado 80501, or to Harold F. Workman, President and CEO, Kentucky Exposition Center, P.O. Box 37130, Louisville, Kentucky 40233-7130.
