- The Show Management reserves the exclusive right to interpret all questions and conditions (within the confines of AQHA, NCHA and NRHA rules) in regard to or arising from an incident to the show, without claim or damages or recourse of any kind.
- Every horse entered must pay a $40.00 stall fee for the duration of the show. Exhibitors must check in with the Stall Personnel (located by Barn O) before picking up packet with numbers. Stalls will be assigned to you upon arrival. Numbers will be given out beginning on Monday, October 30, 2017, at 9:00 a.m.
- Tack or Feed Stalls are available at the $40.00 stall fee.
- No refunds on entry or stall fees will be made where a horse is withdrawn by an Exhibitor for any reason.
- No livestock (for exhibit or sale) will be released until the exhibitor presents a paid Feeders Supply bill and obtains a release from the Quarter Horse Office.
- A contestant shall not enter the arena at any time at a cutting horse contest approved by NCHA with any kind of training device or gimmick of any nature. Also, a contestant shall not be allowed to train, abuse, or mistreat his horse in any manner in the arena or on the grounds; he shall not talk with the judge(s) prior to the completion of the entire show or make comments within a judge's hearing on any work taking place at a performance or harass the judges, show management, or any employee, or use any misconduct unbecoming to NCHA at any show approved by NCHA. The Show Management, Representative or Judge must disqualify a contestant if he enters the arena with any equipment illegal in a cutting horse contest, and all entry fees and/or premiums pertaining to said contestant shall be forfeited.
- All entries for exhibits of any kind or character are subject to these regulations and any violation will subject exhibitors to any penalties by the Executive Committee.
- The management reserves the right to accept or reject entirely, partially or conditionally any entry or application. The management also reserves the right to personally, or appoint a committee to, inspect all entries after they have arrived, and dismiss any entries that would discredit the Exposition.
- Exhibitors will be required to attend to their animals while on exhibition and to have them presented to the judges when called. Any exhibitor who fails to present his animals in the ring when the class is called to be judged will be barred from the competition.
- False representation, interference, or ungentlemanly conduct by an exhibitor will be dealt with by the Executive Committee according to the equities of the case.
- Judges will not award prizes to any unworthy exhibit. Animals must be shown in such a manner as the judges require and if the exhibitors refuse to submit to the requirements of the judges, their animals will be dismissed.
- All animals must be exhibited before the judges in the show ring, with exhibitor number attached.
- Premiums will be forwarded to the exhibitors as they may direct, as soon after the close of the Exposition as they can be properly processed. Premiums are payable by bank check. All premiums whatsoever, not claimed by November 1 of the following year, shall be deemed forfeited to the management or donors.
- All protests must be in writing and accompanied by a deposit of $500.00 which will be forfeited if protest is not sustained. Such protest must be delivered to the Manager within six hours after the occasion of such protest, or if age is brought into question, one day, prior to the one on which the animals are to be judged. Protests will be considered by the Executive Committee as speedily as possible and their decision in the matter shall be final.
